

Box Elder United Football Club Code of Conduct

Box Elder United Football Club (BE United) is focused on player development in a fun and competitive environment that emphasizes sportsmanship, character, and respect. We are here to help your player achieve the satisfaction that comes with competing at the highest level of club soccer that Utah has to offer. All participants (directors, coaches, players, volunteers, and families) associated with BE United are expected to abide by this code of conduct. Failure to do so may result in suspension or expulsion from participation in any club-related activities.

- 1.) Participants of the club will refrain from the use of profanity during any club-related activities.
- 2.) Verbal or physical abuse of referees officiating BE United matches is strictly prohibited.
- 3.) Participants shall not engage in the use of abusive language, physical abuse, harassment, or intimidation of any kind against any other participant, including coaches, assistant coaches, players, volunteers, families, and spectators.
- 4.) All directors, coaches, and assistant coaches representing BE United must maintain reasonable composure at all times during BE United-affiliated activities.
- 5.) All members associated with the club shall abide by the BE United Bylaws.
- 6.) If any participant of any BE United-affiliated activity perceives that this Code of Conduct has been violated, they have a duty to report the perceived violation to the BE United Board for investigation.
- 7.) In addition to the expectations listed above, BE United coaches and assistant coaches agree to abide by the Code of Coaching Ethics set forth by the Utah Youth Soccer Association.

By signing below, I pledge to abide by this code of conduct.
